Dear Madam,

I write in connection with your request for information which was received on the 13th July 2018. Please find below the response to your request:

Please be advised that the information that you have requested is not available in a readily retrievable format and would require significant amount of effort to retrieve and process it. Our office has undertaken a considerable amount of work to attempt to fulfil your request. However, it is apparent that cannot be achieved within the appropriate allocation of time and resource, as determined by legislation. This is due to the high volume of emails sent to and from the PCC, along with the sizeable content some of them contain.

Therefore the cost of providing you with the information is above the amount to which we are legally required to respond i.e. the cost of locating and retrieving the information exceeds the 'appropriate level' as stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees and Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter acts as a Refusal Notice for this request.

Your attention is drawn to the footer which details your right of complaint.
