Ministry of Justice Victims' Services Grant

Following an amendment to section 56 of the Domestic Violence, Crime and Victims Act 2004 and the Anti-Social Behaviour Crime and Policing Act 2014 PCC's now have responsibility to commission victim services.

PCC's also receive a single pot of funding from the Home Office for policing and community safety. A PCC will use this as funding towards the delivery of the police service and the remaining will be allocated to commissioning, grants and his office.

Council Tax

The PCC raises funds from Council Tax levied on the residents of West Mercia and sets a precept. These funds are used to support the delivery of the police service, the PCC, his office, commissioned services and grants.

"Throughout my term I will invest in local outcome focused interventions and projects demonstrating value for money for West Mercia. My investment will be targeted towards supporting victims to cope and recover AND reduce offending throughout West Mercia." (PCC, John Campion) and finding a positive way forward. RJ gives victims the chance to have their say, to get answers to their questions, and to move on with their lives. It gives offenders, or the person that caused harm, an insight into the real impact of their behaviour and an opportunity to make amends.
